Mystic, Connecticut 12:30-6:30pm $50.00 per person

Chartered bus service travels 45 minutes south of Providence to Mystic, located in Connecticut's beautiful Ocean Corner region. Enjoy the afternoon visiting Mystic Seaport, a maritime history museum and village, or Mystic Aquarium, the region's premier aquarium. Fee includes transportation from campus to Mystic and return, a box lunch, transportation between the aquarium and the seaport, and admission to one of the tour venues.

Mystic Seaport is a fun family destination, full of tall ships, a re-created 19th-century seafaring village and endless activities. It is also our nation's leading maritime museum, and an incredibly valuable research center. Enjoy this quintessential New England experience offering visitors of all ages a unique, interactive link to our seafaring past. For more information please view the following website: www.mysticseaport.org

At Mystic Aquarium & Institute for Exploration, scientists can now explore the amazing worlds of the ocean like never before. Be a part of the exploration! Come see the denizens of the deep. Examine the extraordinary geological features of the ocean floor. Through the exhibits and interactive programs, you will get up close and personal with all kinds of amazing creatures! Travel to the very deepest part of the ocean and share the fascinating discoveries of Dr. Robert Ballard and his team from the Institute for Exploration. For more information and for ongoing exhibits, please view the following website: www.mysticaquarium.org

Bristol, Rhode Island 12:30-5:30pm $45.00 per person

Chartered bus service travels 30 minutes east across Narragansett Bay to Bristol, Rhode Island. Enjoy the first part of the afternoon by exploring the village museums, restaurants, shops, state park, and beautiful waterfront parkway along the Bay. Reconvene as a group for a guided tour of Blithewold Mansion, Gardens & Arboretum, a beautifully landscaped historic public garden situated on Bristol Harbor with sweeping views overlooking Narragansett Bay. A forty-five room mansion, trees, lawns, flowers, gardens, and the sea combine to produce an aesthetic experience that is exciting and refreshing. Fee includes transportation from campus to Bristol and return, box lunch, and admission to Blithewold Mansion.

For more information about things to do in Bristol, please view the following website: www.destinationbristol.com

Providence, Rhode Island 1:30-5:30pm $45.00 per person

Discover Providence! Absorb the local architecture and take a walking tour of Providence's East Side College Hill neighborhood guided by a local historian. Enjoy the summer sun and get "splashed" on a famed Ducktour of Providence (www.splashducktours.com)! Chartered bus service then travels 10 minutes north in the metropolitan area to Pawtucket, Rhode Island, considered instrumental to the North American Industrial Revolution. Visit the Slater Mill, a working mill and living history museum (www.slatermill.org). Fee includes walking tour fee, Ducktour ticket, transportation from campus to Pawtucket and return, and admission to Slater Mill.
